

SUBJECT PROGRAM

16.09.2019 No. 6.1-14/2578-1 (EST)

{regDateTime} No {regNumber} (ENG)

CODE	BPTC5238
TITLE (in Estonian)	Inimsmuugeldamine ja inimkaubandus kui piiriülene organiseeritud kuritegevus
TITLE (in English)	Trafficking in and smuggling of human beings as a cross-border organized crime
CAPACITY (ECTS)	1 ECTS Full-time study - 12 h contact hours, 14 h independent work Distance learning - 8 h contact hours, 18 h independent work
CURRICULUM	Police service
LECTURER IN CHARGE	Piret Teppan
PREREQUISITE MODULES AND SUBJECTS:	None
OBJECTIVE: The student knows the nature of trafficking and smuggling of human beings and the general characteristics of potential victims and perpetrators of trafficking or the smuggling of human beings.
LEARNING OUTCOMES	ASSESSMENT METHODS	ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • describes the nature of trafficking and smuggling of human beings and the principles of detection thereof • describes the general characteristics of potential victims and perpetrators of trafficking and smuggling of human smuggling. 	EM. Written paper and case study on trafficking and smuggling of human beings and the identity of potential victims and perpetrators. Threshold criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – the answers to the theoretical questions are relevant and legally correct in content; – describes the nature of organized crime – describes the nature and special features of trafficking and smuggling of human beings. – describes the possibilities for integrated border management in the combat against cross-border organized crime, with a particular focus on trafficking and smuggling of human beings; – describes and analyzes the possibilities for EURLSUR to transmit information on cross - border crime related to trafficking and smuggling of human beings. - in the case study, attention has been paid to all the circumstances, the logical connections have been highlighted, the views and solutions presented are legally justified; – certain lack of detail and single legal errors may occur 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Defines and explains legislation under international law, EU law and national law governing organized crime and trafficking and smuggling of human beings. legislation governing organized crime and trafficking and smuggling of human beings. – describes the nature and special features of trafficking and smuggling of human beings. – Explains the nature of organized crime and the possibilities for combating trafficking and smuggling of human beings.
---	--	---

Date: 2019